ESSENTIAL WORSHIP

Providing the best new worship song resources for local churches.

Essential worship provides easy access to hundreds of tops songs and related content for worship leaders. The site is designed to provide Christian musicians around the world access to transposable chord and number charts, lyrics, and acoustic performance videos. These song resources are provided for free to grant ease of access to local worship leaders, and the simplicity of the "find a song" feature aligns perfectly with that mission.

Technical Features

- Record label marketing site.
- Search tools
- Custom lead sheet and chord chart transposition tool
- WCAG 2.0 compliant. (ADA audit)
- User account login with song collection management
- Two factor authentication for admin access to meet Sony Music's Data security Standards

ESSENTIAL
MUSIC PUBLISHING

Empowering song writers as they impact the world. Essential Music Publishing provides publishing rights management and administration, licensing, royalty collection and payment. Users visit the website to license music for a variety of use including digital downloads, films, podcasts and performance. The site functionality allows for administrators to manage the catalog, users to search the catalog, purchase, and the transaction components allowing the users to pay for the licenses online. This merger of uses access and administrative tools creating powerful tools drastically improve the licensing request, approval, and payment fulfillment processes.

Technical Features

Two factor authentication for admin access to meet Sony Music's Data Security Standards.

- Allows commercial and non-commercial users to login and license music for all license types
- Custom process for license requests, admin review and approvals, and licensing fee fulfillment
- Custom quote tool for large media companies who will utilize the content in large projects
- Batch upload song and license information that auto updates or generates new song content and information
- Advanced search tools

PREMIER PRODUCTIONS

Making concert/festival season that much better by making it easier. Leading with a localized user experience strategy, Premier Productions is designed to engage concert-goers with the most intuitive interface providing ease in functionality and connecting people with Christian entertainment events. The bold call to action, "search for events in your area", encourages users to input their area code to be matched with local concerts and festivals.

Premier Productions serves over 1.8 million unique visitors.

Technical Features

- Custom tour management tool for
  - Venues
  - Markets
  - Artists
  - Festivals
  - Complete with delayed postings

- Ticketing sales
- Mailing list integration for lead gen
- Street team management
- Automated notification system for admin and key functions.
- Geo-location search
- Automated javascript Pre-sale/Onsale management
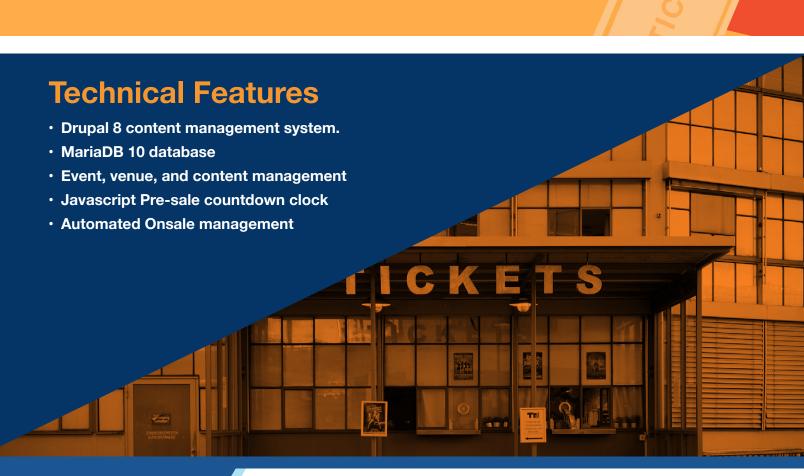

tickeTServant®

Keeping ticketing fees low and functionality high.

As a non-profit organization, Ticket Servant, offers this professionally designed site and its' functionalities to other non-profit performance groups at cost, reducing stress and overhead. Equally mission driven as Ticket Servant the site is designed to provide exceptional ticketing services including event scheduling, automated publishing, pre-sale management, as well as artist and location databases. This is the new way of ticketing.

Technical Features

- Drupal 8 content management system.
- MariaDB 10 database
- Event, venue, and content management
- Javascript Pre-sale countdown clock
- Automated Onsale management

Loop

And the beat goes on... Loop Community is the largest user-contributed loop library in the US and is among the highest ranked sites in the world (within the top 0.3%). Content Creators visit Loop Community to contribute original loops that a fully customizable for use in live performances. The site offers a revolutionary revenue model in tracking and managing music licenses on behalf of users and publishers. While tracking licenses, the site also manages sales transactions and distribution and sale of derivative works. The mobile application tracks the user's license purchases and allows them to perform with tracks on stage.

Technical Features:

- Commission tracking and payout management for publishing royalties and content creators
- Custom file uploader for massive file sizes with automatic file formatting and automated product creation
- Custom API exposed for content sharing between web and native mobile application using the Drupal 7 Services module
- Fully custom web based sound mixer that allowed the user to create a custom song in the browser
- Advanced search tools
- Apple iTunes integration for visual content to ensure artist accuracy
- Physical and Virtual commerce merchandising.
- Built a customer credit credit system that allowed users to use commissions as part of future purchases

NSAI NASHVILLE SONGWRITERS ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONAL
Est. 1967 | It all begins with a song

The great songwriter Paul Simon said, "start with something true".

To advocate, celebrate educate and elevate songwriters, the Nashville Songwriters Association International commissioned a site to unite their global members. The content rich site offers member directories, songwriting review session booking, subscription management and handles all of the organization's event transactions. The NSAI community can connect with local chapters and stay connected through local events while participating in national events at the same time.

This website serves as the central communication hub for new and experienced songwriters to grow in their craft.

Technical Features

- Drupal 8
- Custom Payment System
- Membership Management
- Yearly renewal and additional credit purchases.
- Song evaluation request and feedback system
- Event registration management
- Local chapter communication tools and chapter leader management features

FLIG

Connecting event planners and those who keep the party going. Flig Music is a booking engine and innovative talent search tool. Designed from an event planner's perspective the site and mobile app allows users to search for specific types of talent and genres then brokers the booking transaction including escrow. The application features a full custom payment fulfillment and tracking system with Quickbooks, PayPal, and Stripe Payment gateway integrations. The highly intuitive user experience has revolutionized the ease of booking talent for private events.

Technical Features

- Custom Symfony PHP
- Javascript Front end with a Drupal 8 public facing site for content management
- Custom API hooks to Quickbooks and Stripe
- Advanced user administration dashboard and content moderation tools
- Internal Chat tool

devvly

PRO LESSONS

Jam on. Pro Lessons offers on-line guitar lessons for beginners and more advanced players through pre-recorded video of industry professionals. The website allows users to customize the learning experience based on interest. User can select to learn based on experience, subjects or choose a professional to learn from. The system also allows for user subscription tracking and subscription payment services.

This is a revolutionary method for users to learn to play guitar on their own schedule, from anywhere.

Technical Features

- Custom monthly subscription integration with Stripe
- Vimeo video integration blocked behind pay wall for authenticated subscribers
- Custom course creation with the ability to add videos
- Student progress tracking and sequencing
- File uploader for subscriber downloads
- Custom stepped sequencer for how to play a song

POSITIVE, ENCOURAGING

K-LOVE.

Keeping audiences connected to the music they love.

With over 20 million weekly listeners and 520 FM stations, K-LOVE is the largest simulcast in the world.

K-Love's Fan Awards site is designed to keep the radio networks' fans connected to this seasonal event - K-LOVES largest annual live production. Users experience a robust content management system designed to organically move them through the site. The site is designed to manage large traffic spikes when it's time for fans to cast their ballots for the K-Love Fan Awards. The voting system allows radio listeners around the world to actively participate in voting for their favorite artists.

Technical Features

- Drupal 7
- Event marketing site for massive user engagement.
- User voting and nomination system
- Email system verification with voter validation
- Mandril API integration for mass email notification management.